

The Gazette

WEDNESDAY FEBRUARY 2, 2000

OUR choice

Friday February 11/Saturday February 12: One hundred years of music and costume will be celebrated by Fiona Harrison in a unique way at the Court Theatre at Pendley, Tring. Each decade has professional voice-overs depicting the news, musical trends and fashions of the time. Fiona, pictured, has 11 costume changes in the show and the songs include Baby Face, My Guy and I Know Him So Well. Box office: 01442 824673/824674.

ONE hundred years of music and costume are celebrated by singer Fiona Harrison in the Millennium Spectacular at Pendley's Court Theatre on Friday and Saturday, February 11 and 12.

Each decade is featured with a new costume, appropriate popular songs and voice-overs to explain the news topics of the time, musical trends and fashions.

Well-known numbers include Baby Face, The Umbrella

Man, Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy and I Know Him So Well.

Tickets from Michael Edmunds Insurance Brokers, Church Yard, Tring on HH 824673/4 or call 01296 630827. The show starts at 8pm.

THE GAZETTE

Theatre

Plus

The Bucks Herald